

PINCHOT

Has Induced Colonel Roosevelt to Address League

SPHINX LIKE SILENCE

Maintained by Both Men Regarding Their Conferences

Ideal Weather Greets Roosevelts and Villagers Bombard Them With Roses.

(By Staff Cor. of U. P.)

Porto Maurizio, April 12.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt today accepted an invitation personally delivered by Gifford Pinchot, whom President Taft removed as chief forester of the United States, to address the meeting of the National Conservation League. The acceptance of this invitation lets the first real light into the nature of the confidential interviews that were begun yesterday by the ex-president and Pinchot and were enthusiastically resumed today.

Both Roosevelt and Pinchot continue their sphinx-like silence regarding the subject matter of their conversations, but in view of today's developments, this silence is no longer baffling the correspondents. In fact, the correspondents were not baffled from the first, but they needed something besides mere conjecture on which to hang their conclusions, and the acceptance of this invitation has given them the needed peg. The significance of today's acceptance is apparent. One of Col. Roosevelt's pet reforms was the conservation movement. Pinchot was his right bower. Pinchot and Secy. Ballinger ran afoul. President Taft supported his cabinet member and for Pinchot's resignation.

Roosevelt has heard the Pinchot side of the controversy, accepted his friend's statements, and without waiting to hear from the other side, has indicated that his sympathies are all with Pinchot.

It is becoming daily more apparent that Roosevelt is going to learn of other phases of the American political situation before he returns to the United States. The report that Francis Heney, former prosecutor of San Francisco, and Seth Bullock, U. S. marshal at Deadwood, S. D., are to meet him in Europe and disclose to him the situation in their respective territories, bears out this conclusion. Both Heney and Bullock are staunch supporters of Roosevelt.

Though he has said nothing, it is daily becoming more apparent that Colonel Roosevelt is disappointed that President Taft has not sent an emissary of the administration to give him the administration side of the various controversies now on in America.

As the conservation movement in America is one of the liveliest questions now before the American public, Roosevelt's willingness to speak at the meeting of the Conservation League indicates he has lost none of his old love for a "fight."

Had he wished to avoid being drawn into controversies, it is the opinion of those who are closest to him at the present time, he would have refused Pinchot's invitation.

Pinchot's meeting with Roosevelt yesterday lasted almost until midnight, and that it was entirely satisfactory to the ex-forester was shown by the broad smile that lighted his face when he returned to his hotel. He was off again at eight o'clock this morning for Miss Carow's villa, where he and Roosevelt again started on a long tramp.

"It certainly seems like old times," Pinchot said to the correspondents who tried to break through his guard. "My walk with Roosevelt reminded me of the strolls we used to take about Washington."

There was a ring of significance in Pinchot's words.

Another perfect day greeted the Roosevelts at Miss Carow's villa. Wherever the Roosevelts went today, whether walking or riding, they were greeted enthusiastically by the villagers, who several times bombarded them with bouquets of violets and roses.

GIRLS ESCAPE

From Receiving Cottage at Delaware Industrial Home and Reward Is Offered.

Delaware, April 12.—Eight girls, new inmates of the Girls' Industrial Home here, escaped from the receiving cottage at the home about midnight last night, where they were being held, awaiting assignment of permanent quarters.

Elsie Shroeder, of Cleveland, procured a key to her door, unlocked her own door and doors of the other girls' rooms and they made their exit through a pantry window. Police throughout the state are looking for them and a reward of $5 each has been offered for their apprehension. Besides the Shroeder girl, the fugitives are Pearl Smith and Pearl Ludwick, of Cleveland, Lizzie Sans, Lebanon, Ethel Mellot, St. Clairsville, Ethel Henson, Ironon, Minnie Peacock, of Washington C. H., and Clara Murphy, Cincinno. All are about 17.

The girls walked 25 miles to Columbus, where they arrived this morning, hungry, footsore and covered with dust. Police who had been notified of the escape by authorities of the institution, caught them. They gave no reason for running away and will be returned to the home.

ALBANIANS

Making Serious Charges of Brutality Against Turkish Military Leaders.

Constantinople, April 12.—The Albanian revolt continues today as active as ever, yesterday's dispatches announcing that the Albanians had agreed to put down their arms turning out to be a well engineered piece of government deception.

The Albanian deputies are making serious charges of brutality against government military leaders who were sent into Albania, and the deputies demand a sweeping government investigation.

RESCUED FROM WATERY GRAVE

Painesville, O., April 12.—After a thirty hours' battle in a gale on Lake Erie Frank May, 38, of Detroit, and Fred Clark, 47, of Youngstown, were rescued early today from a disabled launch. The men were in a desperate condition and the life saving crew of the tug Fisher from Fairport were imperiled in the work of rescue which lasted 9 hours.

The two set out in a choppy sea from Ashtabula Sunday afternoon on their way to Detroit. In the teeth of a gale a cylinder head blew out and May narrowly escaped death from the flying bits of iron.

OFFICIAL DENIAL OF DISABILITY

Madrid, April 12.—The official denial that King Alfonso's heir, the prince of the Asturias, is in any way defective seems to have positively established the fact that the child, though four years old, cannot articulate. It is generally believed that the inability is such that the king's second son, on Jaime, must succeed to the throne and it is thought that the trouble is mental.

NAMED WALL OF NEW LEXINGTON

Columbus, O., April 12.—On the resumption this morning of the legislative investigation into the Elson telephone bill bribery charges, Representative Gaillard of Toledo named Thomas W. Wall, president of the Bell Telephone company at New Lexington, as a lobbyist who had urged him to vote for the bill. Gaillard said that Wm. had not attempted any improper methods.

A number of other representatives were examined and the names of employees of telephone companies throughout the state were mentioned, as lobbyists. Most of the members, however, testified that they knew of no improper methods used to get votes.

This afternoon the committee and Attorney John J. Sullivan held a conference with Gov. Harmon.

PREDICT BILL WILL PASS

Columbus, April 12.—Governor Harmon's bill to create a central board of four members to take over the management of the state educational, correctional and charitable institutions, introduced in the senate by Senator Sisk of Licking county, will be introduced to the senate late this afternoon, after it has been amended so as to make the commission five instead of four members.

How to Rent a Furnished Room!

A person living in a furnished room who thinks of changing, is in a mood to read about the room that's different—that's bigger, that has more creature-comfort furnishings, more light, newer draperies or decorations, a pleasanter view, that's easier of access, that represents more for the money."

So long as you have an unrented room that's for rent, keep your ad in the spot light." Every day furnished rooms are rented through want ads—and not many through other means.

So that the persistency is tenacious—but usually is cut short by success before you get your teeth gritted together very hard!

JEALOUS

Of Chum's Beautiful Wife and Tries to Kill Her

URNS GUN ON SELF

Young Beauty Had Spurned His Request to Elope

Assault a Prominent Physician and Son of Pennsylvania Millionaire.

Pittsburg, April 12.—Dr. Mark Blackburn of Wilson, Pa., member of one of the most prominent families of Western Pennsylvania, last night shot down Mrs. Violet Getty, beautiful wife of Dr. W. G. Getty of Hyndman, Pa., his dearest chum, then turned the revolver on himself.

Mrs. Getty is at the Allegheny General Hospital, where it is said, she can not recover. Dr. Blackburn is at the Homeopathic Hospital, and is not expected to live.

The shooting was done at 108 Ninth street, Pittsburg, the home of Mrs. Mary Mars, mother of Mrs. Getty, whom she had been visiting.

Blackburn has been insanely jealous since his graduating day, when his chum and college classmate, Dr. Getty, announced his engagement to Violet Mars, with whom Blackburn had been wildly in love.

This was seven years ago, but, after Getty and the young woman were married, Dr. Blackburn visited their home regularly.

Yesterday Mrs. Getty came from Hyndman to her mother's home and Dr. Blackburn saw her on the street in the afternoon. He walked to her mother's home with her and went into the parlor as an old and true friend of the family.

"Violet, I'm going to Milwaukee tonight and want you to go with me," Mrs. Mars heard Dr. Blackburn say to her daughter, and as Mrs. Mars hurried toward the door leading into the front room she met her daughter rushing out.

"The doctor's crazy or has been drinking," said Mrs. Getty.

Dr. Blackburn shouted after Mrs. Getty that he would go up the street, get a revolver and come back. He skinned the door and went away.

Later Dr. Blackburn returned and rang the bell. Mrs. Getty declined to open the door and telephoned for the police. She then returned to the door and shouted at Dr. Blackburn to go away, that she had sent for the police.

"I won't go without you, dead or alive," shouted Blackburn through the glass door, firing through the door as he spoke.

Mrs. Getty fell at the first shot, the ball passing through her breast.

Blackburn opened the door by inserting his hand through the shattered glass, and fired two more shots at the woman as she was trying to struggle to her feet. One of the shots missed, the other taking effect in the shoulder.

Thinking Mrs. Getty was dead, Blackburn placed the revolver to his own head and pulled the trigger.

The shot proved a glancing one, though it knocked him off his feet. Rising to his knees Blackburn then fired another shot through his left side. This is the shot which the physician says will kill him.

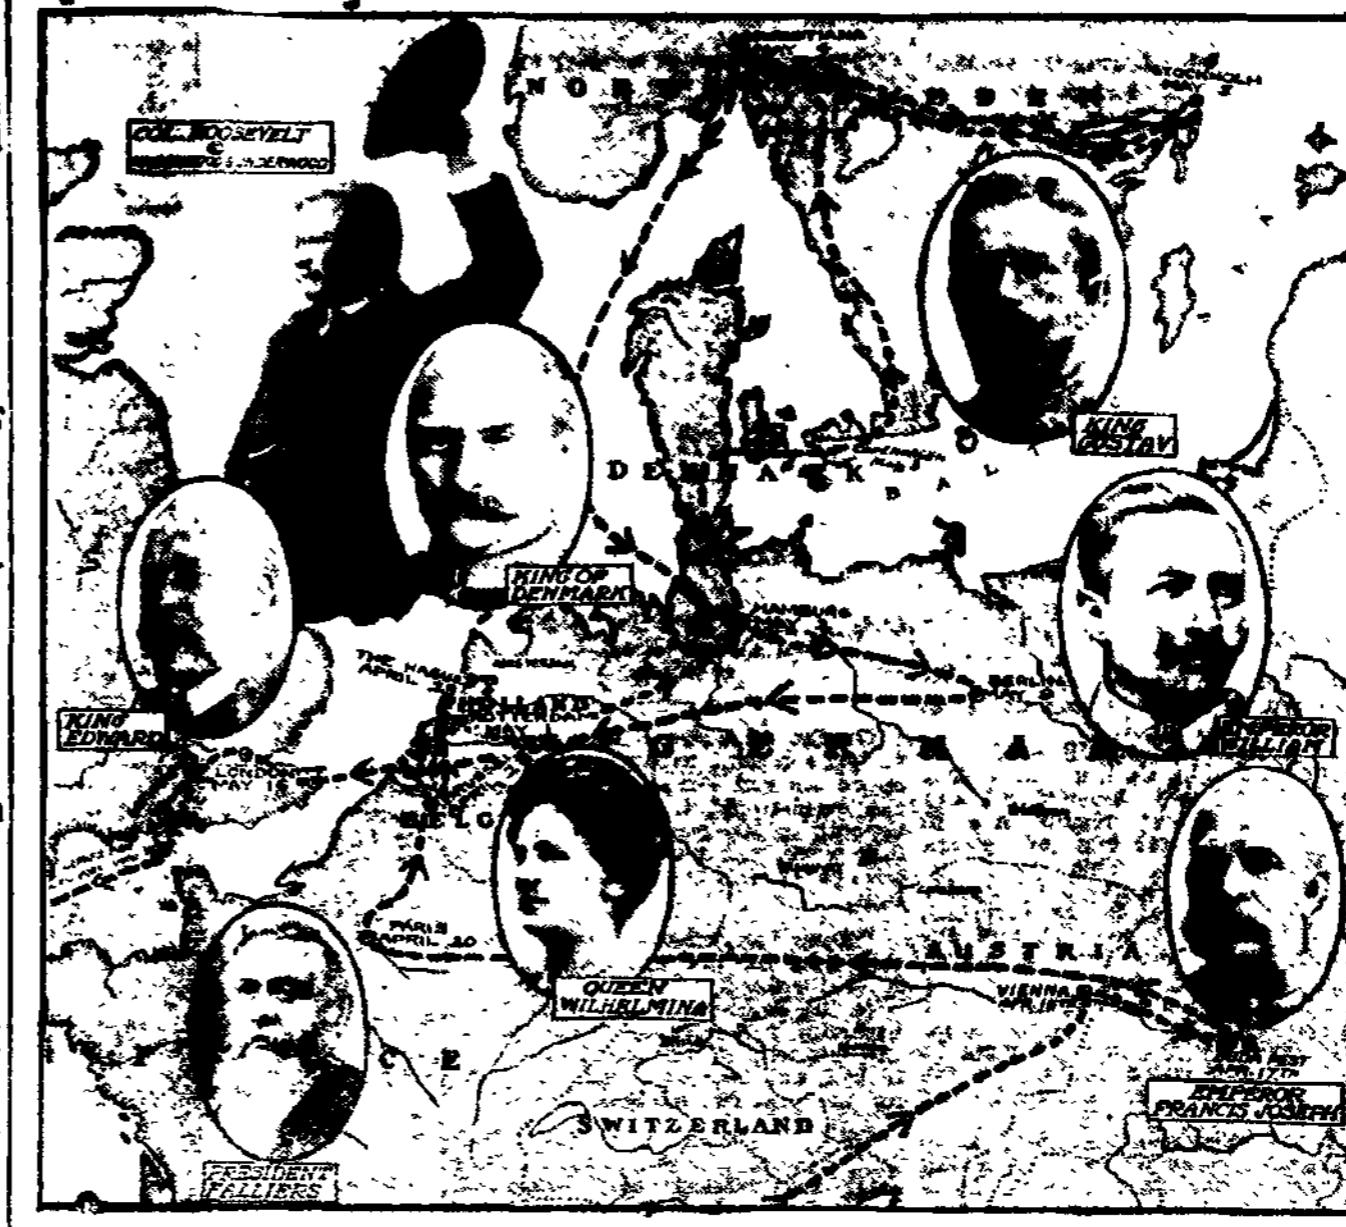

Dr. Getty, who is a son of the famous Supersor county physician, Dr. C. O. Getty, and grandson of former State Senator Getty of Friendsville, Md., reached his wife's side last night.

Dr. Blackburn is a son of R. M. Blackburn, a millionaire merchant of the Monongahela Valley. His family settled in Western Pennsylvania before the whiskey insurrection.

We never all take the bitter with the sweet, consequently the optimist regards life as a cocktail.

Nautically speaking, when a man is stern should be he proved of it?

Sayler Jury Returns Verdict of Manslaughter

OUT THIRTY-SIX HOURS

Miller Draws Twelve and Woman Three Years

Mrs. Sayler Breaks Down and Falls Weeping into Her Daughter's Arms.

Watseka, Ill., April 12.—Dr. W. R. Miller and Mrs. J. B. Sayler, whose names have been coupled in the Sayler murder trial, were found guilty of manslaughter in the slaying of J. B. Sayler of Crescent City, husband of the woman, last July. John Grunden, medicine vendor, from Oklawaha, father of Mrs. Sayler, was acquitted.

Punishment was fixed by the jury in Miller's case at 12 years' imprisonment in the penitentiary, while imprisonment for three years was allotted to Mrs. Sayler.

The trial, which occupied nearly a month, came to a speedy close. The general expectation was that the jury, which had been deliberating for more than 36 hours, would disagree.

Later yesterday afternoon, when more than 10 ballots had been taken, agreement was reached on the manslaughter verdict against Dr. Miller and Mrs. Sayler and of acquittal for her father.

Then came a pause while the length of the sentence to be imposed was determined. Shortly after 3 p.m. the defendants, their counsel, the state's attorney and his aids entered the court room and the jury was brought in.

Golda Sayler sat beside her mother, Mrs. Sayler. She wept as she entered the court room. When the verdict finding Mrs. Sayler guilty was read she threw herself into the arms of her daughter and sobbed convulsively.

Mrs. Miller clung weeping to her husband, and he clasped her to him.

The court room was hushed as the jury was polled, and Attorney Fred P. Morris made the formal motion for a new trial for the convicted two.

State's Attorney John P. Palliser agreed to setting the motion for argument for April 30.

For the first time since he was arrested Dr. Miller felt the grip of handcuffs as he was taken from the court room to the county jail, after an affecting farewell to his wife.

Mrs. Sayler, somewhat recovered from her emotion, walked unshackled to the cell which has been her home for many months.

John Grunden, with squared shoulders, went from the court house a free man.

The crime of which the defendants, Dr. Miller and Mrs. Sayler, were found guilty, was the slaying of J. B. Sayler in the parlor of his home. The state in the trial brought out much concerning alleged intimacy of Mrs. Sayler and Dr. Miller, and scoffed at the pie of self-defense advanced together with the story of the defendants that Mr. Sayler precipitated his death by attacking Dr. Miller with a hatchet without provocation.

RESIGNATIONS OF CABINET MEMBERS ARE NOW IN ORDER

Washington, April 12.—Good but he refused. He was to leave the morning; have you resigned yet?" is cabinet, anyhow.

Secretary Dickinson is to make a speech at one of the local theatres, the identity of which has not yet been revealed.

Secretary Ballinger has embarrassed the administration, according to rumor, and must take the toboggan, if he can do it gracefully.

"Uncle Jim" Wilson is an old man and besides, the gossips have been getting him out of the cabinet for years, so he was also scheduled for the axe. Postmaster General Hitchcock was to quit cabineting and take to politics. Then the gossips paused and waited for the denials.

They came. The president denied he had not heard of any changes. Knox denied—he did not intend to resign. MacVeagh denied—he was going to stay until the finish. Wilson said it wasn't his turn to resign, he resigned only on Mondays or Wednesdays. The rumors spread that Ballinger was to be replaced by Wickerham, as premier. MacVeagh, because of the opposition to his tariff decisions, was also to get the other fellow to—

Some of the rumors have seemed to have some authoritative sources, to succeed the late Justice and no one in Washington would be surprised if they would come true.

NOTHING DOING FOR DR. COOK

Seattle, April 12.—Word reached here that Dr. McKinley, ex-president of practical Alaska explorers, succeeded in climbing to the top of Mt. McKinley. The party reports that he found no trace of Dr. Cook, whom he left there.

Washington, April 12.—Mrs. Carrie B. Walsh, the widow, and Mrs. Evelyn B. McLean, the daughter, received practically the entire estate of the late Thomas F. Walsh, whose will was filed today. Walsh left $100,000 to charity. His estate is estimated at from $1,000,000 to $10,000,000.

WIFEY WANTS BACK

Cleveland, April 12.—Carl Jorn, the German tenor, who started the world a-monty by giving up all claims to his wife so that she could not free him to marry a young Berlin musician, announced today that he just received a letter from her asking him to take her back. Dr. Jorn, who is with the Manhattan Opera company, declared that he could not accept her plea.

The Chantecler idea is most certainly sweeping the country and appearing in every form imaginable for not only have we the Chantecler play, Chantecler hats and gowns but now from the metropolis of the east comes the return of a Chantecler party given by one of the society damsels Saturday evening when the interior decorations of her palatial residence represented a barnyard scene and the souvenirs and dinner cards were in the shape of Chantecler.

But wonders upon wonders! This week the show windows of the more pretentious grocery stores of New York City are adorned with pyramids of bottles filled with preserved roosters' combs; the real thing, clipped from the proud heads of the barnyard monarchs. They are being served mostly in the French restaurants and when interpreted, the costly dish is found to be "fried cock's combs" combs smothered in mushrooms" and 'tis said they are not bad eating either, because mushrooms are always good and the cock's combs don't taste like much of anything.

What is now a specialty in the east in the restaurant bills of fare are the Chantecler cocktails, which are being widely advertised and they are made the same as the ordinary cocktail, only one cock's comb is dropped in, in place of an olive or a cherry. No fatigues have been reported as yet.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY

No one should ever take Calomel except under a doctors' directions.
Calomel contains mercury, and mercury is poison. Physicians for years have been looking for a substitute, for no doctor likes to give dangerous medicine. Dr. Edwards, after fifteen years of study, has solved the problem for all physicians in compounding Olive Tablets, containing Olive Oil and other vegetable compounds, which act gently and firmly on the liver and bowels. It is not necessary to take calomel any more since Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are taking its place, so your liver and bowels can be restored to their natural functions without any danger. The Olive Oil in the tablets is healing to the irritated organs.
Try a package and see what wonders
they do for the Liver and Bowels.

CRUSH COMES TOWARD CLOSE

Dangerous Part of Session Now at Hand.

BUT LITTLE DONE SO FAR

Nomination of Congressional Candidates by Direct Vote at Primaries Most Important Measure Yet Enacted—Senate Clogged and House Congested—Legislature Learns Nothing by Experience.

BY ORWELL C. RIDDLE.

Columbus, O., April 12.—When the legislature resumed operations this week it was felt that something would break before the 120 days.

With all the "big issues" clogged in the senate and with a clogged calendar in the house, the situation is becoming very tense and dense.

The house could not pass all the bills on its calendar. It put in 18 hours every day during the rest of the month. The house would still have to act on numerous bills passed by the senate if the same are to become laws. And every bill of its own passed by the house from now on will add just so much to the girth of the session.

This is the way it goes toward the close of every session. No legislature learns from its own experience, as this legislature should have learned from the record of its special session last year, nor from the experience of any former legislature.

It is this "final rush" and crush which results in so much carelessness.

Granville, O., April 12.—There will be a debate in Recital Hall on Friday evening of this week between Rochester University of Rochester, N. Y., and Denison University.

The team representing Rochester is composed of Randal A. Kenyon (captain), MacDonald G. Newcomer and Benjamin J. Slater, while the team representing Denison is made up of George B. Williams (captain), C. F. Kemper and Harry L. Deibel. The subject for debate is: "Resolved: That All Corporations Doing Interstate Business Should Be Compelled to Take Out Federal Charters." The Denison team will take the affirmative side of the question. Unusual interest is being taken in this debate and there will be a big crowd of students in attendance at the contest. An enthusiastic committee at the "Sem" is planning a big demonstration of Denison spirit and a pleasant entertainment of visitors and friends by a grand march-songs and music. Townspeople and friends of the college are invited to come and join with the students in encouraging the Denison team, and do all in their power to cheer the boys to victory.

Washington was human," continued Dr. Johnson. "He was a man among men. He was fond of fox hunting and horse racing, and he was also drunk. He even swore, we are told, and I am glad of it, because there are times when a good oath seems to be the most natural vent for a man's emotions."

HICKS MATCHED WITH KID CLARK

Freddie Hicks, who is now training in this city, has been matched to box Kid Clark, of Chicago, on the evening of Thursday, April 21. This will undoubtedly prove the banner athletic carnival of the season, as Clark has a reputation as one of the top notchers, having boxed a draw with the noted Kid Ashe and several others of the "big ones."

The contest will be conducted along the lines of former events of a like nature and in addition to the main bill, there will be several preliminaries and different athletic "stunts" and also a splendid program of music by the full Auditorium orchestra.

T. J. Evans Sells Begy's Mustarine for Neuralgia or Any of These Complaints.

Begy's Mustarine is better than mustard plasters—better than hot water bags—better than any cough medicine, poultice or liniment for neuralgia, rheumatism, pain in chest or back, earache, headache, toothache, sore throat, coughs, colds or pain or ache in any part of the body.

Just rub it on, that's all, and it will do anything that a mustard plaster will do and will do it quicker.

Begy's Mustarine is always ready for use, and should always be kept on hand. It is sold by T. J. Evans with a rigid guarantee that if it does not prove satisfactory, money will be returned.

Begy's Mustarine is a mustard plaster brought up to date, with all the dirtiness eliminated. It will not blister, yet it acts like magic. Try a box, only 25 cents, you take no risk. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid, by J. A. Begy Co., Rochester, N. Y.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

DEATH'S TOLL OF THE RAILROADS.

During the month of March sixty-six lives were death-toll of the railroads of Ohio, according to reports made to the state railroad commission. Of these but one death occurred on electric roads. The victim in that case was a trespasser.

LAKE EXCURSIONS.

Arrangements are being made by the railroads for handling the summer traffic to the lakes this summer. The season will begin early this year, and every effort is to be made to make the business record-breaking. Excursions have already been scheduled and others will be arranged soon. Additional coaches have been secured for handling the traffic.

TRAFFIC ON LAKES STARTED.

The summer traffic on the great lakes has been started officially, although a large number of steamers have been running for several weeks. The roads are rushing their cars to the coal and ore regions of Pennsylvania and Southern Ohio to help in the great amount of ore and coal that is to be carried over that territory this summer.

There is still some ice in Superior, but this will have disappeared by the end of the present week when regular Duluth traffic will be established. As it is now, the Soo is the farthest navigation goes, but dozens of ships have left the southern ports for Michigan and the straits.

EXCURSIONS.

The Buckeye Hardwood company which has had a factory in West Newark, is planning to extend their business and for that reason they have taken out a building permit for the erection of a new building in North Newark.

The new building will be 60 by 20 feet with a wing 30 by 16 feet and it will be built along the B. & O. tracks,

north of the property of the Newark

Ice and Cold Storage Co. The factory will face on Manning street and will cost $2,000.

HALLEY'S COMET

Seen Through Telescope Will Soon Be Visible Here to the Naked Eye.

Mr. Frank Orcheere, a well known Baltimore and Ohio brakeman, has been granted leave of absence for a few days.

Some people are under the impression that the comet can be seen by the naked eye, but the fact is that Prof. Porter, of the Cincinnati Observatory, got his first view of it yesterday through the big telescope. The tail was not visible, as the comet was discovered at an early hour near the dawn, but it will be visible from now on in the early morning hours. The visitor was a mile north of east in the sky, and was 100,000,000 miles away, and is approaching the earth at the rate of about 2,000,000 miles a day. It will be about 14,000,000 miles away on May 18, when it will approach nearest to the earth.

Halley's comet at the present time is not as bright as Venus, which is now in the western sky, and led many persons to believe that it was the comet, said Prof. Porter. "It looked misty, and the tail was not visible. The first sight I had of the visitor was at 4:20, and the sun

rose at 5:23."

"How fast is it moving?" Prof.

Porter was asked.

"I should judge that it was moving

MAY DECIDE TO REMODEL
THE BUILDING

Friday evening the Y. M. C. A. trustees will hold their annual meeting for closing up of the year. April is the first month of the 35th year for the Newark Y. M. C. A. This meeting of the trustees will be a very important one, as the question of an extensive remodeling of the building will be up for decision. The proposed changes will make of the building an up-to-date building for Y. M. C. A. work, providing more than 39 bedrooms or dormitories for young men, with baths and the usual club conveniences. The rooms will be well lighted, heated and cared for in tidy, home-like fashion. The dormitories of other associations have proved to be a "home for young men away from home." Dayton has 127 bedrooms in the new half million dollar building, and there is a waiting list of applicants for rooms. Ashland has 30 bedrooms in their new building—a town of 10,000 population—and finds them a great help in the work. If the decision is favorable to remodeling, Newark will be in position to demonstrate the modern type of successful Y. M. C. A. work. The suggested plans will give the boys' department completely separate quarters with a fine big club room for a high school club. As the building is now arranged, it is not possible to get results, because the boys' scatter all over the building and the effect of this is to make the building unattractive to many young men who are really in need of the things provided by the association.

NEWARK MAN IN SEARCH OF HEALTH

Columbus, O., April 12.—In a last effort to save his life, Grant Garton of Newark, who is in the last stages of tuberculosis, is beating his way across the continent to Washington. Physicians have advised him that his last resort is an open-air life and a change of climate. He is without funds so he is making his way across the country to the Yakima Valley, where a brother lives.

He arrived in Columbus last night and applied for lodgings at police headquarters. The man carries letters from prominent citizens of Newark testifying to his worthiness. Mayor Herbert Atherton and many physicians have given him letters of recommendation.

Garton's plan is to go from city to city receiving help in each one with the aid of his letters. A part of his way he will walk. He will ride where he can secure the necessary fare. He intends to sleep in the open air much of the time and hopes that when Washington is reached, 3,000 miles away, he will have re-oversed his health.

Three years ago Garton had pneumonia three times in quick succession. This weakened his lungs and he contracted tuberculosis. Now he says he will bear his way to the Northwest and to health.

FATHER MARTIN
LECTURES TO A LARGE AUDIENCE

An appreciative audience filled the Blessed Sacrament church, East Main street, last evening to hear the second number of the Catholic Lecture Course. The subject was: "Man—created by God or an evolution from the Ape." Though the treatment of the matter meant an hour in the fields of science and philosophy, the subject was handled in a manner that made it interesting and intelligible to all.

The lecturer, Father Martin, told a story of a medical friend, who after a few months at the medical college, was an enthusiastic evolutionist and indignant at anyone who would not agree with his theory. Fifteen years later I visited my friend now a successful physician and the proud father of a beautiful girl of three. I admired the child's blue eyes, beautiful bright face and golden hair and remarked to the father, "One could never think she was descended from a monkey." He replied, "I descended from a monkey, what do you think?" "Why," I replied, "I don't know, I used to insist that we are just well developed Apes?" "Oh," he laughed, as he caressed his lovely child, "that's what I talked when I had studied the matter for three months. Now that I have studied it for 15 years, I tell that bush."

"A generation ago," said the speaker, "materialism expressed itself in the theory is still an unproved theory. To an evolution from the lower forms of matter. There was a link missing in the chain of evidence. The missing link is still missing. Between man and ape yawns an impossible gulf. The theory is still an unproved theory. Today there is a reaction and leading scientists like Sir Oliver Lodge, Dr. Lapponi Wallace, Lord Kelvin, Louis Pasteur, not only believe in the soul as a separate immaterial substance, but hold that the spirits of the dead may revisit us."

Ernest Haeckel, the author of the Riddle of the Universe, was branded as a science faker, who "demonstrated" the similarity of the dog, ape and human embryo, by reproducing the same picture three times, as picture of the three.

Father Kress answered many interesting questions. Tonight he will speak on "Several Kinds of Unreasonable Men." The music is a feature of the services. Father Watterson introduces also his non-Catholic fellow citizens to hear these lectures on the foundations of religious belief. Admission is free. Services begin at 7:30 p.m.

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

W. A. Erman & Son, the popular druggists, are making an offer that is just like finding money, for they are selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount, they agree to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is only recently, through the solicitation of Druggists W. A. Erman & Son, that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents. They urged the proprietors to allow them to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified their good judgment, for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, W. A. Erman & Son will return your money.
